

Lake Como Summer School

Draft programme — 8–12 June

Monday, 8 June

- 09:00–10:15 Lecture 1
Shaun Hargreaves-Heap Should we worry when economists misremember their history?
- 10:15–11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00–12:30 Student presentations
History of thought, welfare, and economic ideas
1. Lucas Marquet-Ellis Pareto and welfare: Value-free normative economics?
 2. Nathan Martinon Against preference reductionism: Reconstructing Walras's normative project
 3. Marta Frigenti The unwritten history of social ecological economics
- 12:30–14:00 Lunch break
- 14:00–15:00 Tutorials
- 15:00–16:15 Lecture 2
Patricia Rich The Ecological Rationality of Ambiguity
- 16:15–16:45 Coffee break
- 16:45–17:45 Student presentations
Conceptual and methodological reflections on economics
4. Jonas Campos Self-fulfilling economics: Some conceptual issues
 5. Leon Ahlborn The politics of idealisation: Representational risk in macroeconomic modelling and the demarcation of the political domain

Tuesday, 9 June

- 09:00–10:15 Lecture 3
Jack Vromen What evaluation criteria should be invoked in welfare economics when stakeholders have social preferences?
- 10:15–11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00–12:30 Student presentations
Behavioural public policy, evidence, and measurement
6. Lari Hokkanen The operationalisation problem for causal generalisation in behavioural public policy
 7. Losner Briones Evidence-based policy and the evaluation of redistributive policies
 8. Moritz Hörl What is social mobility? – Democratizing the measurement of opportunity
- 12:30–14:00 Lunch break
- 14:00–15:00 Tutorials
- 15:00–16:15 Lecture 4
Emrah Aydinonat Economic Models as Argumentative Devices
- 16:15–17:15 Student presentations
Money and markets
9. Jakob Gschwandtner Methodological considerations for a comprehensive account of the origin of money
 10. Jyoti S. Nayak Efficient market, wage labor and autonomy

Wednesday, 10 June

- 09:00–10:15 Lecture 5
Catherine Herfeld Awakening Sleeping Beauties in Economics: The Role of Model Transfer
- 10:15–11:00 Coffee break

- 11:00–12:30 Student presentations
Social norms I — Explanation, policy, and moralization
11. Paolo Leardi Functional explanations for social norms
 12. Tatu Nuotio Towards a pluralistic account of social norms' influence for behavioural policy
 13. Cuizhu Wang Moral norms as conditional social norms: Moralised preferences and second-order conditionality
- 12:30–14:00 Lunch break
- 14:00–15:00 Tutorials
- 15:00–16:00 World Café
Organised by Malvina Ongaro & Sofia Blanco Sequeiros
- 16:15–17:45 Student presentations
Social norms II — Reciprocity, spontaneous order, and norms erosion
14. Giorgia Lucchini The role of social norms in the emergence of a spontaneous order
 15. Gergana Boncheva Informal employment and reciprocity: Why it's not enough to play fair
 16. Vittorio Catalano Hate Speech and the Erosion of Social Norms

Thursday, 11 June

- 09:00–10:15 Lecture 6
Antoinette Baujard Scrutinizing welfarism to revisit welfare economics
- 10:15–11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00–12:30 Student presentations
Rationality, framing, and game-theoretic modeling
16. Emre Karayer Framing and rationality: Normative assessment, game-theoretic modeling and experimental test
 17. Alessandro Guerra The one-step principle: Choosing performative game-theoretic models of pro-environmental behaviours
- 12:30–14:00 Lunch break
- 14:00–15:00 Tutorials
- 15:00–16:15 Lecture 7
Alessandra Basso Measurement in Economics
- 16:15–16:45 Coffee break
- 16:45–17:45 Student presentations
Justice, ethics, and normative risk
19. Xavier Chatron-Colliet Eudaimonia: A concept between social justice and relational agency
 20. Edward Rousset Serious about rights, realistic about risk: The case for finitist social welfare

Friday, 12 June

- 09:00–10:15 Lecture 8
Guilhem Lecouteux Welfare or Well-Being: which objective for public policy?"
- 10:15–11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00–12:00 Student presentations
Markets, capitalism, autonomy, and commodification
21. Berit Weiß Self-defeating commodification
 22. Eva Hijlkema The concept of benevolence in neoliberal capitalism
- 12:00–13:30 Lunch break
- 13:30–14:30 Feedback session
- 14:30 End of school